Camper Fees

Camper fees can be paid in installments after a completed application has been received or completed on-line. Additional payments (minimum of $50.00 per payment) can be mailed to Camp Registrar at the address below or paid on-line with a credit card. For payments by mail, be sure the camper's name and session are clearly marked. For on-line payments, be sure to use the camper's name exactly as it appears on camp records (your receipt) to assure credit to the correct account. Balance must be paid upon or before arrival at camp.

Medical Concerns

- There is a licensed nurse and a well-equipped medical facility on the camp grounds to handle any medical issues. There are also local hospitals in the area. The nurse is responsible for dispensing all medications (no medicines are allowed in the cabins). The New York State Health Department has two requirements:
 - The Individualized Standing Order form has to be completed and signed by a health care provider to receive any over-the-counter medication while at camp.
 - All medications (prescription, herbal, over-the-counter, or other) for your child must be in the original container clearly labeled with the camper's name and instructions.
 - Medication will not be dispensed unless these requirements are met.
- You will be notified by the camp nurse or director if your child needs to be seen by a clinic, doctor's office or emergency room.

When not to send your child to camp:

- ✓ If the child has had symptoms of any contagious illness within the 24 hours prior to arrival at camp. A camper will be allowed to arrive a day or two late once any symptoms are absent for the 24 hour period.
- ✓ If the child has any head lice or nits.

Camp Li-Lo-Li Head Lice Policy

Children are at risk of exposure to head lice when participating in activities where they are in close proximity to each other such as schools and camps. Therefore it is in the best interests of all campers that Camp Li-Lo-Li has a "no lice, no nits" policy.

According to New York State Health Department regulations, each child will be screened for lice by camp medical personnel upon arrival at camp. The "no lice, no nits" policy means that even if a child has recently been treated for lice, but is still found to have nits (lice eggs) or dead lice in the hair, that camper must be sent home. Therefore, it is very important that the task of combing all nits out of the hair be performed prior to arriving at camp.

Thank you for your co-operation
